FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WORKSHOP FOR SINGLES PROMOTES HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS Relationship Program to Benefit Community

Dearborn- August 10, 2010- Ready to learn “How Not to Marry a Jerk or Jerkette?” If so, join the Marriage Resource Center (MRC) as it presents the research-based PICK a Partner workshop. It will be held on Friday, September 17 from 6-9pm and Saturday, September 18 from 9am-3:30pm at Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. The church is located at 29066 Eton in Westland. Attendance both days is required.

PICK a Partner is a fun-filled and practical workshop designed to educate individuals on successfully identifying qualities and characteristics to a healthy relationship. It teaches how to pick a dating mate that will lead to a successful marriage. With 95 percent of the population wanting to marry, it is important to learn the skills and achieve the tools to “increase your ability to make wise choices and build safe relationships.” This program is geared towards teaching singles what the heart and head need to know.

The MRC is non-profit organization that is dedicated to informing the community of healthy relationship skills. Their mission is to improve the quality of marriage relationships and family life; for adults and children alike. They are challenged to raise awareness of programs and services available to individuals and couples at every stage of pre-marriage and marriage with a focus on strengthening marriages and reducing the divorce rate throughout Wayne County.

To register for this event, please contact Karen Crummie at 734-721-2557. To find out more about other workshops, retreats and support groups that are offered by the MRC, call 313-278-4400 or check out their website at www.mimarrriage.org.
